Tywardreath Well Dressing and Blessing

ISOT (In Search of Tywardreath) hosted its first Well Dressing ceremony on 30th May, visiting the wells at Well Street and then the medieval well at Newhouse farm.

Revd Shona gave a blessing and led us in a hymn. We were then entertained by the Tagney family and Tywardreath Morris, who proceeded to dance through the churchyard to the “Blessed Mary” medieval well at the farm. This was blessed by Shona and there was musical entertainment afterwards, which included Ryp an Mor.

A set of clay-based panels at Well Street had been amazingly decorated by local organisations, businesses and individuals, with the intention, weather permitting, to keep them on display for a few weeks. The large panel at the farm had been designed and decorated by Deborah, Lynn and a guest from Australia.

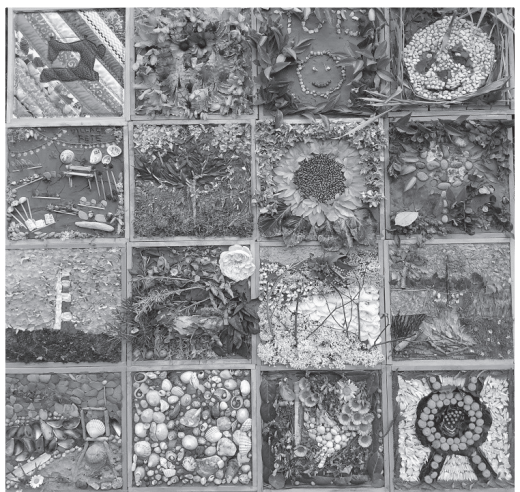

The attendance of about a hundred people included a visitor from America.

Thank you to all who helped in any way to make the afternoon a success, especially the gardeners of Well Street for making the area look fantastic and to the New Inn for their behind the scenes support. We hope to make this an annual event.

St Andrew's Church
AT THE HEART OF TYWARDREATH

Revd Shona Hoad writes ...

Driving back home from Roche this afternoon the clouds were low and visibility was reduced to about 50m or so. I am not writing this in the autumn as you might suppose but in summer when we have had some recent glorious sunshine. Driving carefully down the hill through the heavy cloud, I was thankful that I knew the road already and could gauge when one of those many roundabouts would be looming in front of me. It made me think of our journey through life and things that help keep us rooted and secure.

Over the last month it has been a privilege to minister at a baptism, a wedding and a funeral and it seems to me that those key moments are events that can help give us a sense of direction and an understanding of belonging. Baptism offers us the opportunity to acknowledge that our lives are rooted in the context of a greater purpose and a broader love than anything we might find in earthly terms. While baptism may be part of our childhood story it can also be something we choose for ourselves as adults, as we discover/rediscover a desire within us to fully explore who we are, how we are designed, and why we are here. Acknowledging the love of God and the gift of Jesus as a model for how we should live together is so helpful as we make daily life decisions; decisions that can often feel complex and cause us anxious moments because we cannot see the situation clearly and it feels as though we are walking through a cloud.

Weddings give us the opportunity to acknowledge that we do not journey through life alone. One of the key moments in a wedding service is when the family and friends of the couple say that they will support them in their married life. Clearly the promises and vows the couple make are important but they will find it easier to live by those promises when they are also supported by others in all the ups and downs of daily life and know God's love with them too.

All of us will have faced the death of a loved one and funerals are important moments to mark and acknowledge the life that was lived – joys and mistakes alike. A Christian funeral gives those who grieve the opportunity to reflect not just on the life that has gone but also on the life still to come as we accept the eternal nature of God, our creator. When we receive that for ourselves it is like a cloud lifting and the full light of the sun blessing our lives and illuminating the way ahead.

With every blessing.

Next on 19th July: Family Service @ St Andrew's
10 am ... on the third Sunday of each month.
Contemporary songs, craft activities, prayer and praise.
Enjoy a tea or coffee as you reflect and chat with others.
All welcome. (There is no 11 am service on this day.)

News from St Andrew's

Sunday 17th May. Our family Service was led by Martin Hoad and team. We learnt about David's plucky defeat of Goliath. The young audience joined in enthusiastically with shouts of "Too Big" and whispers of "Too Small". After some songs and a prayer, there was the opportunity for craft work or puzzles for the children; with coffee and chat for the adults.

Sunday 24th May, Pentecost. Martin led our service of Morning Worship. He said that Pentecost is sometimes referred to as the "birthday of the Church", remembering that this was the day that the Disciples were filled with the gift of the Holy Spirit. It overflowed and reached those around them. We are all invited to be filled with the Spirit and share with those around us the Good News of Jesus Christ. .

Saturday 30th May. The restored wells at Well Street and the ancient well at Newhouse Farm were dressed in the traditional way and blessed by Revd Shona in an event organised by the local history group "In Search of Tywardreath". An account appears on page 1.

Sunday 31st May. We assembled at Golant for a service of Holy Communion led by Shona. She referred to the previous day's Well Dressing and pointed out that, because water is so essential to our lives, a village well has long been a meeting place. In the same way, we come together in church to hear the Good Word and share the bread and wine of Holy Communion.

Sunday 7th June. In the Gospel reading (Matthew ch 9) we heard Jesus say to Matthew, "Follow me," and Matthew immediately followed. In the same reading, a leader of the Pharisees found the courage to approach Jesus and ask for help. Shona said that when we trust God we can do so much more. We should not be afraid to kneel before Jesus and ask for help.

Sunday 14th June. We heard Matthew's account of Jesus' challenge to the twelve disciples. Shona spoke of the fear which any of us might have experienced when taking on the challenge of a new job. Jesus saw that the disciples looked like a flock of sheep, left without a shepherd. But Jesus could bring order and purpose to people's lives. The disciples found within themselves the strength which they needed. Shona said that our faith allows us to go through life without feeling harassed or helpless. We all have the ability to pray. We just need courage to take the first step and God will be with us.

At 6pm there was a period of informal prayer with Shona and Martin.

Tregaminion

The June service celebrating Midsummer will have taken place as News & Views is going to press, on Sunday 21st June.

On Sunday 19th July, at 10am as usual, we have BCP Holy Communion, led by Revd John Benson. In August we shall meet on Sunday 9th.

It is hoped to be able to have Tregaminion open during the day at various times through the summer, depending on volunteer availability. Contact Nigel Canning for details. nigeyc@btinternet.com

Fowey and District Fuchsia and Garden Society

The July meeting will be held on Monday 13th July from 7 until 9 pm at Tywardreath Chapel, when Brigit Strawbridge will be talking on Bumble Bees.

Visitors welcome £3 per person, refreshments and raffle.

On Sunday 19th we hold our annual show at Par Scout Hall, Moorland Road PL24 2PA, from 1.30 until 4 pm with an amazing display of fuchsias and pelargoniums, plant sales, tombola and refreshments. Entry by donation. Joining members at the show will get membership until January 2028 for just £12. Plenty of free parking. Everyone welcome. Gill Smith

Tywardreath & Par Over 60s Group

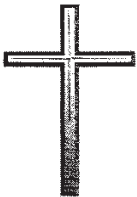

For our June meeting, we had a talk on Cornish Food. This was followed as usual by a home made tea.

On July 10th, starting at 2pm, our meeting will include a talk from the Perranwell Handbell Ringers. All are welcome to come and enjoy the afternoon, finishing with a cream tea. Contact Linda on 814459 or Liz on 812256.

Fontana Gardens, Trenthyon Manor

The opening of the garden on the 10th of May was postponed as Mr Bishop was taken ill, so we combined it with an opening on the 17th of May, which was very successful. The weather was great we made a total of £875 for Cornwall Hospice (Mount Edgumbe Hospice)

The following Thursday we opened for a private group, Nanstallon Garden Club, in evening. There were not many people at this event but everyone had a great time and £100 was taken. Both events included refreshments by donations for the Hospice. Thank you all for attending.

The next garden opening is on August 2nd, 1pm until 4pm, for which I will put a further notice near the date.

Tywardreath Trotter

This year's Tywardreath Trotter running race will take place on Saturday 25 July.

The Trotter is in its twentieth year and has become established as an extremely popular event in the Cornwall race calendar. In 2025 over 300 runners took part. Since it started in 2006 the race has raised over £50,000 for local charities.

The Trotter is also Round 1 of the 2026/27 Cornwall Multi-Terrain Race Series – a series of off-road races across the county.

The format of the race will be unchanged from previous years. A 1-mile fun run will set off at 5.00pm. The fun run is aimed at the under 16s but runners of any age can take part – Mums, Dads and grandparents are all welcome. All finishers receive a medal and there are prizes for the fastest 3 boys and girls in the under 16, under 12 and under 8 categories.

The main 7-mile race starts at 6.15pm. Entrants must be 16 or over. Both races are approximately 50% off road and are run on quiet country lanes and paths.

The races start and finish at the New Inn in the centre of Tywardreath. There is dedicated parking nearby, baggage storage and a barbecue. Well Street will be closed to all traffic between Church Street and Trenant Road from 3.30pm to 8.00pm. For access to Trenant Road during these times, please go via Polmear and Tywardreath Hill.

Entries for the main race must be made in advance via the race website up until the day of the race. Fun run entries are on the day only from 3.30pm. For more information go to www.tywardreathtrotter.co.uk

We're always looking for people to help marshal the race. If you could spare some time between 4pm and 8pm on race day, please contact Matt Ward on 07711 037343 or mattward234@gmail.com

Fowey Memory Café

Memory Café is held on alternate Thursdays from 2pm to 4pm at Squires Field Community Centre, Park Road, Fowey, PL23 1EF. We offer a range of enjoyable activities to promote communication, physical activity, mental stimulation, and a feeling of positivity. We like to vary activities, but the one thing that we do every session is enjoy tea or coffee, cake and chatter. We also spend time reminiscing as well as talking about current affairs.

During June we spent time looking at old photos of places that we have lived and talked about changes over the years. We gave ourselves the opportunity to look back on key points in our lives over the decades. It is amazing how many members can reflect right back to the 1940s! We have also held our AGM giving us a chance to review the last year and make plans for the forthcoming one. We have also managed to find time for Bingo, and other quizzes and games.

New guests and carers are always welcomed. Just give us a ring on 07525 488329. Next dates are: 9th and 23rd July; 6th and 13th August.

Tywardreath Memories of Miss M George

*From "Tywardreath Past and Present," published 1993 by Tywardreath Women's Institute.
Miss M George lived in Fairfield, Church Street until 1934*

My mother kept up her tennis during her lifetime and I used to go along with her to the field in Vicarage Road. At this time, I had a little wooden gardening set and can well remember having a fine time "haymaking" whilst she enjoyed the game!

Earlier still she used to go to Chota Ghar, where there was a tennis court – people called Bailey lived there then, and I used to go with her. It was on one of those occasions that we saw an airship – the only one I have ever seen – it was in the sky over the Mount, shining in the sun like a big silver fish! That would have been about 1920.

The Vicarage Land court has long since gone – developed for housing – its homes all the way in that area now and a very pleasant part it is too! In 1983 most of the exchange of property in the district was in the hands of Messrs May, Whetter and Grose, the well know auctioneers, who owned large premises in Eastcliffe Road and smaller branches in other Cornish towns.

The firm started in the twenties with a small lockup furniture shop in Moorland Road, Par. Started by Mr N H May, they made a lot of the furniture in their workshop and worked up a very good trade. Then, in the thirties, just before we left, they built their big new shop with the Cornubia Hall above. It was for some time used for dances and other social events, but later on it was used only for their auction sales, which were a going concern at that time.

They no longer deal in new furniture dealing with their partners solely in property sales and auctions. Their old shop was used for years by Mr J Bacon for his flourishing electrical business. After that it became a second-hand furniture store "Chequers".

In the village proper – which is an island- are all the original dwellings, terraced cottages, right on the pavement: they have secluded gardens at the back, reached by "opes" here and there between them. Some of them have steps and ramps to their doors and a few even have old fashioned door scrapers.

In Southpark Road, below the school and the cemetery entrance, a building has been turned into flats. This was done by a jobbing builder in the twenties, taking several years to complete! During this time the place was derelict with doors and windows boarded up, the place acquired the name "Wembley".

Besides the Tennis Club, there were occasional opportunities for other sports and in the thirties, the Hornets Rugby club was formed and had their ground at Par Moor. – they later became the Newquay Hornets.

The Vicar at this time was Rev A C Rice, BA, who had already served the Church loyally for sixteen years. In 1925, he was succeeded by Rev G H Barnicoat, who served for another ten or twelve years, during which time a new vestry and heating system were put in. The Southpark Road Cemetery was opened and dedicated at that time. (to be continued)

World Scout Jamboree

Hello! We're Alice, Keira, Isobel and Isabelle – four Explorer Scouts from Menabilly Explorer Unit of Polkerris Scout group – and we've been chosen to represent Cornwall at the World Scout Jamboree in Poland in summer 2027!

The Jamboree brings together 40,000 Scouts from across the globe for an unforgettable ten days of new skills, cultural discovery and friendships that last a lifetime. We can't wait!

Here's the thing though – we need your help to get there!

Each place costs £3,500, so together we need to raise £14,000. UK Scouts are encouraged to fundraise their fees, which helps make the event accessible to young people from all backgrounds worldwide. Scouts from wealthier countries contribute a little more so those from less affluent nations can attend too – and we love that ethos!

Every donation, however small, brings us one step closer to Poland. We've chosen to set up a fundraiser with GoodHub as they keep your data safe and send your money directly to the charity, claiming gift aid where appropriate. The QR code will take you to our donation page. Alternatively, you can use the web address here:

<https://www.goodhub.com/go/menabillyjamboree>

Thank you so much – you're helping make the world a little smaller and a lot kinder!

Alice, Keira, Isobel and Isabelle
